

Prophecies for November 4, 2007

(Revelation 7:9-17)

After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands. And they cried out in a loud voice:

“Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They fell down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying:

“Amen! Praise and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength be to our God for ever and ever. Amen!”

Then one of the elders asked me, “These in white robes---who are they, and where did they come from?”

I answered, “Sir, you know.”

And he said, “These are they who have come out of the great tribulation; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore, “they are before the throne of God and serve him day and night in his temple; and he who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.

Never again will they hunger; never again will they thirst. The sun will not beat upon them, nor any scorching heat. For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd; he will lead them to springs of living water. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

A few moments ago, Jack said he grieved for those who weren't here; who didn't see this day and were not rejoicing this day in this place and in all we do. For it is in this place the Lord has made Himself known to us this day, and we have seen the doors of heaven opened, and we are participating in worship with the angels and the archangels and with all the company of heaven. Here there is nothing in heaven or earth that can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. And if we are in the love of God we are with those saints and angels, with all the company of heaven singing the praises of God. For this day, my friends, we have walked into the very presence of God, this is the Holy of Holies and here we worship Him in spirit and in truth, not because we are made righteous in our own eyes, but because we have been made righteous in the blood of the Lamb. And our clothing has been washed, our spirits have been washed, our very selves have been cleansed with the blood of the Lamb. In Him alone we are made worthy to come into the Holy of Holies. And in Him alone we are here and we worship God with the angels and the archangels and all the company of heaven.
