

Prophecies for February 17, 2010

"This will be a season of breakthrough for you individually – for you corporately," says the Lord. "Don't be afraid to draw close to me and to seek my face, for I will reveal my light unto you. I will shine my light upon you. I will dance upon you. I will sing over you. I will give you greater things than you can even begin to imagine says the Lord. Do not be afraid to come near. Do not be afraid to fall on your face before me, for I have abundant mercy planned for you. I have abundant grace to pour out upon you. I have abundance of provision for you. Do not be afraid to come - to spend time - to waste time before me in my presence. For I am gentle and lowly, and I will give you rest. I will give you the things you desire," says the Lord, "if you will but turn to me. Seek my face. Do not be afraid. For I am the Lord your God, and I love you with love immeasurable."

I'm hearing He's not going to say, "No." You have to ask. He's not going to say, "No." It's like Mary at the – the wedding in Cana. She asked Jesus to turn the water into wine. He said, "Woman, my time has not yet come." But He still did it. So we just have to ask. He's not going to say, "No." He wants the best for us. He wants to give us more than we can use. He wants to turn the water into wine.
